BRITAIN FEARS MOROCCO WAR

German Newspapers Take Serious View of Situation.

SILENCE AT THE ADMIRALTY

No Authenticity of Report That the British Fleet Was Held in Home Waters Owing to the Moroccan Crisis.

London, July 28.—Rumors of war over the Morocco situation continue to divide public attention with the British crisis over the veto power of the house of lords. There is talk of a conference of the powers similar to that held at Algeciras four years ago.

Premier Asquith made a statement in the house of commons on the subject of Morocco which fully bore out the description of the situation as one of real anxiety. The position the premier said had reached a point at which it was bound to become difficult and harassing unless a solution was found. He said the government had thought it right from the beginning to make it clear that failing a satisfactory settlement, Great Britain must become an active party to a discussion of the situation.

The Berlin and other German newspapers take a serious view of the situation, but the statement is made in official quarters that nothing has occurred to cause anxiety.

At Lloyds, however, war risks against hostilities between Great Britain and Germany within three months rose from 5 to 8 per cent. In some cases even 10 per cent was paid. Against the risk of war between France and Germany 12 per cent was quoted.

The admiralty would not give any information as to the authenticity of the report that the British fleet had been held in home waters owing to the Moroccan crisis. Much speculation has been stirred up in official circles by the report that the admiralty has canceled the visit of the Atlantic fleet to Norway.

That Germany will get compensation in South Africa as a result of her descent upon Agadir and in return for the free hand which France is seeking in Morocco is conceded here, but it is also clear that Great Britain is not going to permit the establishment of a German naval base on the west coast of Africa if she can prevent it.

Boy Fatally Wounds Sister.

Aurora, Ill., July 28.—Playfully pointing a revolver at his twelve-year-old sister, Monroe Landau, a ten-year-old boy, fired and fatally injured the little girl.

SHOOTS GIRL SIX TIMES

AND FIGHTS POLICE

Sacramento, Calif., July 27.—Springing suddenly out of an alleyway Wednesday a man supposed to be C. H. Emory, recently of San Francisco, shot and killed Miss Anna Dudley, a stenographer at the state engineer's office, and formerly stenographer for ex-Governor Gillet. The slayer, pursued by police posse, held the blue-coats at bay and wounded two bystanders before he was shot and killed.

He drew two revolvers and, reloading several times, fired 40 shots at the police before he was slain.

CORSET STEEL SAVES LIFE

Bullet Striking Woman at Holland Is Deflected by It.

Holland, Mich., July 28.—Miss Hull Mueller, a Cincinnati nurse, owes her life to a corset. While walking through the grove at Waukazoo she was struck by a stray bullet, the missile striking a corset steel and lodging in the region above the appendix. The bullet was easily removed and the victim will recover.

Harold Hassig, of Grand Rapids, and Frank Lee of Chicago, who had been shooting mud turtles across the bay were arrested and will have to stand trial for assault and battery.

IMPALED ON ARM OF SEAT

Ionia Man Slips on Banana Peel in Boarding Car.

Battle Creek, Mich., July 28.—Victim of a strange accident, Edward J. Wizard of Ionia was seriously, if not fatally, hurt here.

The Ionian was hurrying to a Marshall street car when he stepped on a banana peel, slipped and was impaled on the arm of a seat. He was taken to Nichols hospital with a gaping wound in his side.

SHOT BY DEPUTY SHERIFF

Farm Hand, Caught in Trap of Jealous Husband, Badly Wounded.

Cadillac, Mich., July 28.—Doc Adams, a farm hand for Reuben Joblin, near Luther, is near death's door as the result of a bullet wound inflicted by Deputy Sheriff Angell of Luther.

Joblin had been suspicious for some time of his wife and Adams, and set a trap for them. He announced he was going to their second farm, a few miles distant, and would work there two days. He went as far as Luther, where he picked up the deputy and returned home. They entered the house and surprised the two occupying the same room. Adams gave fight, attacking the deputy. After a short fight, in which the deputy got the worst of it, he drew a revolver and shot Adams in the side. Angell claims he shot in self-defense. Physicians say Adams will die.

EVERYTHING LOST

NO INSURANCE ON PROPERTY DESTROYED BY FIRE LAST NIGHT.

FLAMES WORK MUCH COSTLY DAMAGE ON THE FOSTER FARM.

Horses, Calves, Pigs, Hay, Grain, Barns and Tools all Razored—House Saved.

A complete loss of crops, stock, machinery and tools and no insurance—is this Ed Foster's experience in his first year of farming on his new place east of town, which he bought only last fall.

Mr. Foster had 315 bushels of wheat threshed Thursday; the harvesting machine and the threshers were still on the place, when half an hour before midnight one of the threshers discovered that the big barn and the tool house were in flames. The engine was attached to the new threshing machine in the barn owned by William Walters, and drawn out. One load of wheat was brought out. Then the work of the flames went on without once being checked. Four horses belonging to Ed Foster, one belonging to his brother and two of William Walters' were burned. Thirty-two pigs and five nice calves, the wheat, the oats, the hay, all the machinery, the corn crib, tool house—all went up in smoke.

The water tank had been filled that evening and when the house got dangerously hot, the neighbors, who had arrived by this time in great numbers, helped to pour water on the house and to carry out all the furniture. However the house was spared.

Mr. Foster moved out last fall from Detroit and bought the Ben Loomis place north of the Spencer place, where his brother Charles lives. Without one cent of insurance he faces this morning a loss which as yet he cannot estimate. It represents the work, the product, the profits of a season, and Mr. Foster has the sympathy of the whole country-side in this tremendous calamity. It is thought that the fire may have caught from a spark from the threshing machine.

The trip is expected to be exceedingly fruitful in results, as the administration is looking to Secretary Fisher to outline legislation for the development of that territory.

STEAM ROLLER RUNS AWAY

Crashes Down Hill and Wrecks Post Office at Houghton, Mich.

Hancock, Mich., July 28.—Excitement was caused at Houghton when a twelve ton steam roller used on the principal business street became unmanageable and rolled down a 30 per cent hill three blocks, crashing into the front of the postoffice building and wrecking the structure.

Nobody was injured.

Carelessness Costs His Arm.

Hastings, Mich., July 28.—Trying to fix a loose belt without stopping the engine cost Richard Laubugh his right arm. The arm was caught in the belt and Laubugh was whirled around the shaft three times before the machinery could be stopped. Amputation at the shoulder was necessary, so badly was the arm injured. Laubugh is twenty-one years old.

Politeness Costs His Life.

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 28.—Sherwood Schauf, a Muskegon interurban conductor, stepped aside to let a passenger on the car while he was returning home to dinner. He fell to the pavement from the rear platform, suffering a concussion of the brain, and died in Butterworth hospital.

Typhoid Breaks Out at Grand Rapids.

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 28.—A typhoid fever epidemic has broken out here as a result of citizens drinking contaminated water. Twenty-five cases are reported, with one death.

ALLEGES THERE IS MONEY TRUST

Claims It Can Control Credit, Exchanges and Deposits.

LINDBERGH ASKS AN INQUIRY

Minnesota Representative Thinks that Certain Financial Powers Can Produce Business Depression at Will.

Washington, July 28.—The "money trust" of Wall street is to be investigated by congress.

In order to determine whether there is a great banking combination, which has the power to control credit, exchanges and deposits and to bring on business depressions and panics, as charged by Representative Lindbergh of Minnesota before the house committee on rules, the committee at its next meeting will report a resolution directing an exhaustive investigation of the subject.

No decision has been reached as to whether the inquiry shall be conducted by the monetary commission or by the house committee on banking and currency. Mr. Lindbergh doesn't care who makes the investigation so as it does something.

Representative Weeks of Massachusetts, who is a member of the monetary commission and a banker, also appeared before the rules committee on the Lindbergh resolution. While he didn't oppose the inquiry and indeed rather urged that the monetary commission be instructed to make it, he scoffed at the idea that there was such a thing as a "money trust."

"If I had the time," he said, "I could show this committee that such a thing as an efficient combination of capital in banking matters could not exist."

"But," suggested Representative Nelson of Wisconsin, a member of the rules committee, "could such a money trust not go beyond banking and yet affect banking?"

Mr. Weeks admitted that this might be the case.

The Lindbergh resolution recites that "our present system of money exchange and credit entails on the people enormous losses due presumably to speculation, gambling and manipulation," and declares that these practices are directed through well defined centers, the greatest of which it is believed does actually have the power of controlling credit, exchanges and deposits to the extent of being actually able to bring on business depressions, and even business disaster."

Representative Lindbergh, who is a radical Republican insurgent, in arguing in favor of his resolution, insisted that the importance of the subject could not be overestimated.

FISHER TO GO TO ALASKA

New Secretary of Interior Will Remain in North Until Sept. 8.

Washington, July 28.—Secretary of the Interior Walter L. Fisher will leave Washington Saturday night for an extended tour over the projects of his department in the far west and in Alaska. Secretary Fisher will remain in Chicago until Tuesday and is due to sail for Alaska from Seattle Aug. 14. He will remain in Alaska until Sept. 8, studying the coal, mineral, harbor and railroad situation.

The trip is expected to be exceedingly fruitful in results, as the administration is looking to Secretary Fisher to outline legislation for the development of that territory.

M'NAMARA IS CONFIDENT

Man Held in Los Angeles Plot Says He Won't "Knock" McManigal.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 28.—"Oh, what's the use to be a knocker?" asked John J. McNamara, when asked what he thought of Ortiz McManigal, who is alleged to have confessed concerning a plot to blow up the Los Angeles Times, in connection with which McNamara and his brother James are charged with murder.

"I am confident of the outcome of the trial," he said. "Perhaps this accounts for my gaining in weight. I hope the trial of myself and my brother will be confined to the courtroom, which is the proper place for it."

REORGANIZATION IS BEGUN

American Tobacco Company Appoints Committees for Purpose.

New York, July 28.—The first formal action in the way of readjusting the business of the American Tobacco company in conformity with the decision of the United States supreme court was taken in the appointment of committees to represent the holders of the senior securities, and co-operate with the management in the work of reorganization.

It may be assumed from the appointment of the committees that the company has a readjustment plan well underway.

SCOUTS TONIGHT

BIG DEMONSTRATION IS PLANNED ON NORMAL GROUNDS THIS EVENING.

RECORD TO BE ESTABLISHED FOR FIREBUILDING WITHOUT MATCHES.

Two Scouts May be Advanced to First-class Honors to be Conferred.

Camp Sherzer, July 28.—Preparations are going busily forward for the out-of-door demonstration this evening in the amphitheatre north of the properties of President Jones and T. C. Owen, which may be reached by pedestrians and automobiles through the driveway between the president's house and the science building on Forest avenue. The giving of the carbon dance and the tilting game and such events involves much preparation of both scouts and material, and in all this training of scouts and fashioning of implements Mr. Seton has taken the greater part, with all the boys eagerly following.

One record which the boys are waiting to see broken is that of getting fire.

It is quite likely that two of the scouts, Jerome Sherzer and Lamar Kishler, will be made First Class scouts this evening, if before that time they have an opportunity of taking an examination in several points on which they have prepared.

Mr. Seton has offered a scout knife to the scout who wins in the first aid work this evening.

Thursday evening after the lecture, Mr. Seton, DeForrest Ross and family and Mr. Hatch went out to camp and joined the scouts in a corn roast and watermelon feed.

Early this morning Camp Sherzer sat in council around the camp-fire to deliberate on the Roland Millis case. He had done so cleverly in the man hunt that he was declared the winner and this evening the honorable nickname of Flying Fox will be conferred upon him.

The bill carries a duty of 35 per cent on raw wool, and makes a corresponding reduction in the manufacture of wool.

The bill will go to the house and to a conference committee of the two houses, and it is expected the result will be a bill revising the woolen schedule on a basis of 30 per cent for raw wool, and corresponding reductions in the manufactures of wool as they now appear in the bill, which passed the senate.

Early this morning Camp Sherzer sat in council around the camp-fire to deliberate on the Roland Millis case. He had done so cleverly in the man hunt that he was declared the winner and this evening the honorable nickname of Flying Fox will be conferred upon him.

This meeting will be of most vital importance to the welfare of the city, for the result of its deliberations may mean the gain or loss of not less than $10,000 to the taxpayers, also litigation and long delay in the work of construction.

Mayor Towner earnestly requests all who have the interests of the city at heart to attend this meeting.

There seems to be a difference of opinion as to the advisability of the Council's accepting the proposition of the D. J. & C. in regard to the bridge proposal. The railroad company in their proposition stated that they would be willing to pay the sum of $17,706 toward a new bridge over the river on Congress street or they would pay one-half the expense of a new bridge which would be the width of the present one. The city, however, does not consider it advisable to build such a narrow bridge and propose to build one the width of the street. The cost of the wider bridge would be about $43,000 and the amount which the city thinks the D. J. & C. should pay would be about $22,000. The railroad consider that a concrete bridge wide enough for two tracks could be built for $34,000 and would be willing to pay the $17,000, their half.

The proposition will be discussed in general this evening and it is on account of the deep interest to the city that all taxpayers are urged to attend the meeting.

AUTO ENGINE SAVES PLANT

Battle Creek's First Horseless Apparatus Proves Its Worth.

Battle Creek, Mich., July 28.—Battle Creek is gradually motorizing its fire department, and the second of the auto apparatus has been put into commission. Responding to the first alarm, auto engine No. 1 covered four blocks in less than a minute, and had water on a blaze in the Battle Creek gas plant in less than three minutes from the time of the alarm.

Fire officials figure that the time gained saved the gas company several thousand dollars, as a stiff blaze had started, so threatening that a general alarm was turned in.

ACCUSES HIM OF ASSAULT

Carrollton School Teacher Causes Arrest of Saginaw Man.

Saginaw, Mich., July 28.—Frank Carmichael is held at Central police station for an alleged assault on Margaret Dalton, a school teacher of Carrollton. Carmichael was arrested at his home and professes to know nothing of the crime, claiming he was intoxicated at the time.

Miss Dalton, according to her story, crossed the Sixth street bridge about 6:30 o'clock and was forcibly taken by Carmichael to a secluded spot and kept until 11 o'clock. Carmichael's face shows signs of having been scratched and pummeled. Carmichael is thirty-five years old and married.

Still the Open Kettle. One very seldom sees a washing machine in use in the south, says Frank P. Fogg in the National Magazine. The old-fashioned way of washing in the open air at the side of a brook or at the well and boiling the clothes in an iron kettle over a smoking open fire is still in vogue.
